NORA JEAN PETERSEN

TIME IS THE SUBSTANCE

OCTOBER 19 – NOVEMBER 19, 2009

Light & Wire Gallery is pleased to present a solo project by Los Angeles-based artist Nora Jean Petersen.

For her show, Time is the Substance, Petersen created three stop-motion video pieces specifically formatted for Light & Wire Gallery.

Like in her sculpture practice, Petersen seeks to exaggerate spatial relationships via the construction and manipulation of objects. The new videos consist of small, ordinary things, (such as string and swizzle sticks,) that are transformed into lo-tech depictions of fantastical architecture, growing flesh on an amputated tailbone, and a reflection on the minutia of daily life through a tense and delicate web of string.
