

LIGHT & WIRE

ALWAYS IMMEDIATELY RELEASING:

ANDY PARKER

Between Coming and Going

November 21- December 31, 2009

Light & Wire Gallery is pleased to present Andy Parker's solo project Between Coming and Going.

Parker is based in London and predominantly makes unique drawings and sculptures. In conjunction with his often site-specific works, Parker sometimes creates films, which document happenings and further illustrate ideas pertinent to the projects.

For this online exhibition, Andy Parker has made stickers of various stages of his working process. Sent from London, the Directors of Light & Wire Gallery stuck these ephemeral images to impermanent, discarded objects in locations around Los Angeles. These curated sitings were photographed and it is this documentation that creates the exhibition; the artwork itself exists only as a temporary, physical gesture.

Parker's film, Seventh Wave will be projected @ 4026 N. Figueroa St., Los Angeles 90065 on November 21st, 2009, in conjunction with Block Party, a walkable tour of art venues in North-East Los Angeles neighborhoods, hosted by Workspace, L.A.

Andy Parker lives and works in London, he is represented by Sies + Höke, Düsseldorf.

#